its individual style and all but 2 have private bathrooms. For more information see the room details below. Outside You arrive to the house down an olive tree lined driveway and pass under the archway into the inner courtyard of the Bastide, on the front side facing the valley is a shading pergola overlooking the kitchen garden and gym building. You will also find the table tennis here. There is a fountain courtyard to the side closest the archway and on the opposite side is a courtyard with the delightful summer kitchen with dining for 14, cooking can be done on a large electric plancha. To the rear of the house you mount steps to the large pool terrace, the pool is heated and measures 10m x 10m. There is a shaded terrace on two sides one with sunloungers and the other with an outside lounge and dining table. There is a kitchen building here so that meals can be prepared on the pool level where there is a fitted kitchen complete with fridge-freezer, hob and oven. There is a BBQ here too. Not to be missed is the wonderful 400 year old olive tree that grows next to the pool. Your privacy is ensured on the extensive 9 hectare grounds encompassing the house and much of the surrounding fields, some of which will be featuring sunflowers in 2023 and then becoming grape vines next year. There is much to explore and enjoy at the house and although you are relaxing in this countryside setting the restaurants and cafes of nearby Saint Saturnin, Roussillon, and Gordes are all within a 5-15 minute drive.
